26 February 2010

To anyone who has had anything to do with the long and successful history of AWACS:

Mark your Calendar and plan on participating in the:

1st AEWA BBQ & Cook-off Contest

When -- 15 May 2010 (that's Armed Forces Day)

Time – 1000-1800 hrs

Where: Picnic Pavilion in the EID area off Douglass and SE 59th

This first of its kind event will be a 1-day festive happening with the intent of bring together the old and new crew dawgs, knuckle busters and support personnel that have made our E-3 Airborne Warning and Control System (AWACS) such a unique and high demand National Resource over the years. It will be an opportunity to bring the AWACS family together and bond as a group that shares one common and proud heritage – AWACS!!

To make this event a success, we need one very important ingredient—YOU!!

If you are, or have ever been part of the 552ACW—we need you!!

You can participate by simply attending and fellowshipping with others in attendance or you can enter a team into the BBQ Cook-off Contest.

Please follow the links to sign up <http://www.aewa.org/Cookoff>. Include your name, crew position and number attending (family members are encouraged to attend).

If you wish to enter a team there is an entry fee. Go to the AEWA BBQ link for information and rules for the BBQ Cook-off Contest.
